Ten Toes Down for You By Alicia, with teaching artist Saskia

When you hold my face and smile at me I feel loved

There's no other place I'd rather be You feel loved From the moment I met you I didn't want to share you From the moment I met you I didn't want to share you

Ten toes down for you Ten toes down for you Ten toes down for you Ten toes down for you

Everything I never knew I needed Now I know I cannot live without

Before you came along I felt defeated
My world was gray but with you came the light
From the moment I met you
I didn't want to share you
From the moment I met you
I didn't want to share you

Ten toes down for you
Ten toes down for you
Ten toes down for you
Ten toes down for you
Ten toes down for you
Ten toes down for you
Ten toes down for you
Ten toes down for you
